BOARD O' TRADE HOLD SECOND MEETING

The Board of Trade's second meeting in the new year started off last night exactly on the 8 o'clock mark, with fully one fourth of the large membership present. No special program had been arranged previous to the business session, as the object of this meeting was largely the appointment of committees for the year, the completion of an organization and assignment of what work was on hand.

However, under the program order of business, and while tardy members were arriving, H. Dallas McCabe occupied ten or fifteen minutes telling the Board of Trade his impressions of a visit recently to the Chamber of Commerce of Donora He was listened to with interest.

President E. C. Sattley then took up the order of unfinished business and named seventeen standing committees for the year 1912. There are from three to fifteen members on each committee, depending largely upon the scope of the work and the wishes of the chairman. A very active year in committee work is expected.

The amendment to the constitution changing the annual dues from $1 to $3 was passed unanimously, and eight members paid their dues at once. A report was read from the special committee on reduction of fire insurance rates, of which J. A. Lohman is chairman.

Reports of officers occupied some time, after which H. Dallas McCabe raised three issues, hitching posts for the town, which was assigned to the Civic committee, and naming of the "unnamed" alleys in town, given to the Civic committeee for disposition. The meeting adjourned at 9:30 sharp.

Funeral Services for Mrs. Cole

The funeral services held Friday evening over the remains of Mrs. Margaret Cole at the home of her daughter Mrs. Elizabeth McDevitt in Dutchtown, was attended by a large number of friends. The services were conducted by Rev. J. M. Jamieson of the United Presbyterian church. The remains were shipped on the 6:24 train this morning over the Pennsylvania railroad from West Monessen, to Alverton, near Greensburg, where the services were completed in the Church of God, conducted by the pastor, interment being in Alveron cemetery.

SMALL FIRE LAST NIGHT AT FOUNDRY

Shortly after 7 o'clock last evening, fire was discovered in the casting room at the Monessen Foundry and Machine Co. The origin of the fire was from the overheated flasks which had been piled at one side after the molds were finished. The Volunteer Fire Department responded promptly, but the blaze had been extinguished by employees before their arrival. the extent of the damage was very small.

YOUNG MAN BADLY INJURED AT THE MILL

Yesterday afternoon about 4 o'clock, William, the 16 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Neary of Reed avenue met with a painful accident in the machine shop of the Pittsburgh Steel Co. Neary works in a room apart from the rest of the workmen and while working over his machine, his glove became caught in some unknown manner and drew his arm along with it. By chance a fellow happening to be passing the door, beheld the young man's dangerous position and quickly shut off the power before the machine had taken the arm entirely off.

He was immediately taken to the office of Dr. M. E. Griffith where the injuries which were found to be, the left arm broken at the elbow and a badly dislocated shoulder, were dressed.

COFFEE HOUSE IS PULLED AT DAYBREAK

About 1 o'clock this morning Patrolmen Lang, C. Wheatley and Ruetti raided a Greek gambling house at 445 Schoonmaker avenue and captured five visitors and the proprietor of the place.

The police department received a tip early this morning that something was brewing and several places were closely watched and when everybody was interested in an exciting game of poker, at the above mentioned place the police suddenly dropped in, confiscated the paraphernalia and arrested the offenders.

It is said that several of these so called Greek coffee houses and pool rooms will be forced to close if the law is not more strictly complied with.

The hearing has been set for 7 o'clock this evening and each visitor put up $10 for his appearance while the proprietor put up $25.

Positive Denial

I wish to positively deny a story circulated in a local paper to the effect that I contemplated embarking in the moving picture business. It is incorrect and misleading, as I have never entertained such intentions.

DANCING AND CARD-PLAYING IS ROUNDLY SCORED BY SINGING-EVANGELIST WELSH

Another good meeting was held in the Monessen opera house last night, the ministers, the chorus and the people being on hand at 7:45 to enjoy the outflow good things.

For the first time the people requested the choir to sing oldtime favorities and the song-service was of superior interest. It was soul inspiring. In addition to the choir there was a four-piece orchestra which, working in conjunction with the choir added much to the interest.

There were quite a number of visiting ministers from Charleroi and Monongahela, who enjoyed and took deep interest in the services.

Rev. J. A. Hazlett of Monongahela was a college class-mate of Evangelist Porter, and said that, had Porter not been what, in college parlance is known as a "rounder," he could have been the star student of his class.

Mr. Porter made a most interesting talk, mainly from his own life's experiences, pointing out the bad effects of being a "rounder" as Rev. Hazlett expressed it and his experience since turning to the better life.

The feature address of the evening was by Homer Welsh, the young singing evangelist, and he seemed to strike the key note when he touched on the all absorbing topic of the day: Dancing in general, and card playing in and out of the home, were handled without reservation. People cannot be christians and frequent the dance hall or surround the card table at the same time. In other words, such poeple are not true christians. Mr. Welsh, before he became a christian, attended dances, played cards, and he spoke of the little side issues always present as temptations, such as the punch bowl, which did not always contain lemonade, by any means. The seemingly innocent punch bowl led on to something stronger, and women of the lower class come to be an attraction, and the influence is not of the best. Mr. Welsh came down to the local issue by saying that there were people right in the house—listening to his talk—who were guilty.

People who within the past seven days had atttended card parties; people who had forsaken the revival meetings for the society and public dance hall. Are such people christians? If so, they are not christians of the right stripe, and not the kind that will be able to pass muster on the final judgment day.

This was Mr. Welsh's first talk before the people, and his subject, so ably, truthfully and honestly handled, was most heartily received.

Today, usual neighborhood prayer meetings were held, and in addition, a prayer service was held by Mr. Porter at the Foundry.

At 11 o'clock the ministers held a meeting to formulate plans for the future progress of this series of meetings.

Don't forget the special meetings tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock for men and women only, in the Star theatre and Christian church respectively. An extra speaker is expected to be here from New Castle. Meeting as usual tonight at 7:45 in the opera house.

Sunday night's collection at the opera house will be especially and wholly for the evangelists. Regular services in the various churches Sunday forenoon.

The Bijou

For an hour's good entertainment, the Bijou is one of the best places in town to visit. Saturday is always our big feature day and as a special attraction today we are offering one of the leading photoplays of the year in "The Law or The Lady," story in which justice maintains its priceless honor and triumphs over the old saying "That every man has his price." "A Near Tragedy" a thrilling Biograph picture and one other good reel. As an extra freature on next Wednesday, don't miss seeing "Niagara Falls in Winter."

Man Expected to Return

Mt. Pleasant, Feb. 17—It is reported here that James Kellar, 45-year-old lover of May Haley, who died last week, will give himself up soon and explain his relations with the girl. A brother of the girl told the county authorities that Kellar was willing to return and make a statement.

The autopsy on the body the day of death showed that she had been assaulted. Friends of Kellar say that he denies improper relations with her.

PROMINENT MEN TO TALK AT BANQUET

Belle Vernon is feeling quite enthused over her coming Civic League banquet which will be given Tuesday evening in Hotel Birmingham parlors. The company is limited to seventy and all tickets have been sold. This is to be the third annual banquet and members are looking forward to a great time. E. L. Sears will act as toast master and the leading speaker of the evening will be Col. Edward E. Robins of Greensburg, our Congressional candidate.

Frank I. Gosser, one of Pittsburgh's leading attorneys and advocate of civic improvement will deliver a talk on "The Value of Civic Association," while W. R. Williams secretary of the Greensburg Board of Trade will talk on "What other cities have done in the way of civic improvements."

Among the guests expected are E. C. Sattley, President of the Monessen Board of Trade the Rostraver township supervisors, and Secretary C. L. Schuck. Also State Highway Inspector E. M. Bigelow of Pittsburg.

Music will be by the Jenkins orchestra of Charleroi.

Star Theatre

"The Girls From Daffydil' are drawing packed houses at the Star. The show is one of the season's best. The musical numbers are catchy and tuneful and the costumes of the chorus are many and beautiful. Frank Steppe and Bert Saunders kept the audience in a continual state of merriment again last evening. The poker game at the close of the second act is an amusing sketch in which the Jew and Dutchman "win when they lose" and lose when they win." The Light Motion pictures are also very good this week.

Photographer Datz last night took a flash light picture of the large chorus which has been singing during the evangelistic revival services, included in which were the hundred or more of the regular choir, the evangelists, minsters, pianist and the house ushers All took positions on the stage after the meeting closed and especial pains were taken to have a good sitting.

LADY RETURNS CONSCIENCE MONEY

"Concience makes cowards of us all" is what Shakespeare brought forth from Hamlet's soul at a moment when he was delibering whether or not to send himself into eternity. The bible in one of the ten commandments says, "thou shalt not steal," Religion as well as the law of the land says, "touch not of that which is tainted," and there are times in irresponsible moments when humanity jests with the things most sacred, but there also comes a time in every body's life when the mind goes back over the past. This fact has been brought out in more than one life during the progress of the union revival meetings now in progress here but we are able to produce for the benefit of our readers one case where the truth struck the human heart and drove out error. A woman who resides in this community but whose name is withheld, attended a recent meeting and was so struck back ward over the past conjuring up the good and the bad deeds, and it came to her mind that in her dealings with a local store she had knowingly accepted $1.00 more than was coming to her She remembered that dollar and the thought of it haunted her very presence until she finally sat down and wrote the following letter which is self explanatory:

Monessen, Pa., Feb. 15, 1912.

Mr. Wm. Welber,
Mgr. Peoples Store,
Monessen, Pa.

Dear Sir:—Enclosed you will please find one dollar, which you gave me by mistake about four months ago I did not think it was wrong at that time, but since attending the revival meeting at the opera house, I was shown that it was dishonest of me to have this dollar, and now I feel better. I wish to remain,

Yours Very Truly.

Are Children Worth Saving?

Are the children of the United States worth one-eighth as much as the bugs? Hon. Andrew J. Peters, a member of Congress from Massachusetts, asked this rather startling question at Louisville last Sunday at a mass-meeting on child labor. Mr. Peters showed that the Bureau of Animal Industry costs the country $1,654,750 a year, and that the Bureau of Plant Industry costs $2,051,-86. The proposed children's bureau would cost $29,440 and would investigate child labor, infant mortality and other important phases of child conservation. It is being opposed, of course, by some manufacturers who want to employ babies in cotton-mills coal-mines and other places admirably adapted for the growth of mind and body and the development of sturdy American men and women. In some quarters the investigation of child labor is regarded as an unwarranted invasion of personal liberty. Certainly! Public schools were so regarded in their early days. The Journal of the American Medical Association says that no doubt we shall soon have a National League for Juvenile Freedom, secretly financed by the coal and cotton barons, and demanding for the child the right to labor when and where it pleases. In the meantime, if Congress thinks the baby crop is worth as much or one-tenth as much as the fruit crop, a children's bureau should be established without delay.

The Divorce Lament

It is common to make loud lament over the alleged growing looseness in the attitude toward the marriage tie and to point to the numerous divorces as evidence that marriage has lost its sense of sacredness to a very great degree—that society is drifting into chaos. While we admit there is ground for such views, yet there is another side of this picture that is not exhibited as often as it should be. We refer to the large number of instances in which the married life proves happy and families grow up with a constantly growing bond of love and home ties.

In the course of the past twelve years the Independent has contained very many notices of the celebrations of silver and golden weddings. In fact social stories of the commemoration of the wedding anniversaries have formed a very prominent feature of these pages. Surely these oft-recurring occasions proclaim many happy unions and homes wherein there has been very much of happiness. They may not take as much space as the stories of the testimony in the divorce courts and because of that some fearful folk find their fears for the social fabric aroused; but it should be remembered that for every divorce there are many wedding anniversaries. There is always more of good than of evil in the world.

Every lover of things good and wholesome, will welcome without question or quibble the varied efforts along religious lines that are being put forth from time to time in order to attract people of various classes toward the church and in line with church work and the betterment of conditions about us generally.

Among the latest onward movements we might name the Men and Religion Foreward Movement. Every city and town almost in the country is at this time being made a field for active endeavor by leaders in the various religious bodies.

Many are the conferences and meetings that have been held. Luncheons, socials, etc., have been held without number, and quite a variety of other plans are suggested to promote activity along this line.

Right now, we have going on right here in Monessen a series of Union Evangelistic srvices, intended to show men and women wherein they err. Plain, hard facts are being presented as examples. Facts out of the lives of men who have "been through the mill" so-to-speak. Men who have tasted life as it really is from the most elevated pinnacle in pure, refined, religious home life to lowest and most degrading depths of sin, debauchery and sorrow.

These men do not bare their souls, tell the stories of their sins just for the sake of telling them. They do so that others may hear and know what they have suffered; what they have gone through—going down, down, down to the very lowermost depths—and how at a decisive and critical moment something turned them round-about and started them on a better, brighter and smoother pathway.

All this is good and tends to lift men and women to a purer, higher and better life. But, there is one other plan that we might suggest to excite the interest and attention of non-church goers. It is a very homely and simple plan and we give it without charge to any one, although we may throw ourselves open to criticism from some sources.

"Let church members themselves attend church services regularly and not make the Sabbath a day for social pastime.

"Let church members stop talking about their preachers and one another and pitch in and help do the work that may come before them to do.

"Let the men of the church attend Sunday School and help teach their boys and girls, and not sit at home every Sunday reading the comic sections of the Sunday newspaper.

"Let every member of the church, male or female, pay something towards the support of the society they promised to aid when they took the vow before God and the congregation.

"Let the church members be as indifferent about the condition of the weather on Sunday as they are about it when preparing to go to the theatre, dance hall, card party or picture show."

We reserve no patent right on these suggestions. We just have scribbled them down off hand as they came to mind, and really don't know whether they amount to much or not. Some good and Godly men who contributed to the Scripture gave out ideas along the same line years and years ago, and no specific has yet been found to take their place.

We venture to say that if members of the Monessen churches would attend strictly to their church business for one month, there would be such a stir in this old town as has not been known since the day the bridge was dedicated.

Life is just one cold snap after another. But make the best of it, for in only a few months, or maybe weeks hence you'll be complaining about something else—possibly the hotness of it.

A Water Doctor Cured Her

"For years I had suffered from a weak back and pain in my kidneys. At times I was laid up in bed and not able to bend my back. The doctors treated me for inward trouble but I kept getting weaker. Then dropsy set in and the urine became scanty and dark colored. My appetite failed, breath became short and eyes weak. I was told I had Bright's Disease and could not get well. GRAY HAIR MAKES YOU LOOK OLD

A Simple Remedy Brings Back the Natural Color—Dandruff Quickly Removed.

How often one hears the expression, "She is gray and beginning to look old." It is true that gray hair usually denotes age and is always associated with age. You never hear one referred to as having gray hair and looking young.

The hair is generally the index of age. If your hair is gray, you can't blame your friends for referring to you as looking old. You can't retain a youthful appearance if you allow your hair to grow gray. Many persons of middle age jeopardize their future simply by allowing the gray hair to become manifest. If your hair has become faded or gray, try Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy, a preparation which a chemist by the name of Wyeth devised a few years ago. It is simple, inexpensive and practical, and will banish the gray hairs in a few days. It is also guaranteed to remove dandruff and promote the growth of the hair.

It is a pleasant dressing for the hair, and after using it a few days itching and dryness of the scalp entirely disappear.

Don't neglect your hair. Start using Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur to-day, and you will be surprised at the quick results.

This preparation is offered to the public at fifty cents a bottle, and is recommended and sold by all druggists.

After reading the public statement of this fellow-sufferer given below, you must come to this conclusion: "A remedy which cured years ago, which has kept the kidneys in good health since, can be relied upon to perform the same work in other cases. Read this:

John H. Hixenbaugh, 108 Wood street, Belle Vernon, Pa., says: "I suffered from kidney trouble for three years. My back became lame and sore and it was necessary for me to give up my work. I finally learned of Doan's Kidney Pills and procuring a supply, I began their use The contents of four boxes effected a complete cure." (Statement given September 3, 1909.)

A LASTING EFFECT

On Nov. 12, 1909, Mr. Hixenbaugh, said: "I do not hesitate to confirm the statement I gave for publication in favor of Doan's Kidney Pills two years ago. The cure they effected in my case was practically permanent, but I have used Doan's Kidney Pills on several occasions since then, finding that they keep my kidneys in good working order."

News Notes of Society

The Misses Amanda Zimmerman and Mabel Gourley were hostesses last night at a delightful social function at the latter's home, 649 Knox avenue. The affair was held in honor of Miss Pearl Leiberum of McKeesport a friend of the young ladies, who has been their guest for several days past. About twenty five guests were present, including both young ladies and gentlemen. Mr. Elmer Ashton of Allenport was the only out of town guest. Music and games of different kinds enlivened the evening until lunch hour arrived when a delicious repast was served which was a very enjoyable feature of the evening. About midnight the guests departed for their several homes. It was a pleasant evening for the friends of the young ladies as well as their visiting guest.

The Ninth Anniversary of the local lodge number 835 of the L. C. B. A. was celebrated last evening in the hall of St. Leonards church by a euchre. The decorations were very artistically carried out in the lodge colors white and yellow, the tables of which there were 25, were also covered with dainty bows and ribbons of crepe paper in the colors. Immediately following the euchre a delightful lunch was served by the young ladies of the order. The committee in charge included the following young ladies: The Misses Novelia O'Reilly, Anna Currie, Mildred Herron, Mary and Agness Keefer, Katherine and Clara Kirsch, Ethel Flick, Agnes Gardell, Alice and Mary Lafferty and Amelia and Helen Patrickosky.

Last evening at her home on First street, Miss Marsgaret Dils entertained about ten of her girl friends in honor of the Hummer's Club. Music, singing and the discussion of club affairs occupied most of the evening, at the close of which a dainty lunch was served by the hostess.

Mrs. R. W. Beck entertained "The Thimble Club" at the her home in the Oak apartments on Eighth street yesterday afternoon. The affiar was a very pleasant one and was followed by a daintily appointed luncheon.

Borough Engineer for Monongahela

At a special meeting of the Monongahela Council last evening, I. A. Morrow was elected to the position of Borough Engineer over nine other applicants. Mr. Morrow is a graduate of the School of Engineering at Pitt and is well able to fill the position to which he has been elected.

Some objection was raised to Mr. Morrow's election at first, owing to the fact that he is in partnership with former Borough Engineer Hanlon. Mr. Morrow stated, however, that he would perform the duties himself and that Mr. Hanlon would not be employed in any capacity. When the vote was taken Morrow was elected by a vote of 8 to 1.

Her Course Outlined.

A young newspaper woman, disturbed in her dreams of future happiness, decided to consult a palmist, and spent an afternoon recently to visit one in West Philadelphia. She heard what the fortune-teller had to say, but was not satisfied with the results. "Well, well," she asked, impatiently, "and what sort of man will my husband be and when will I meet him?" "O-o-oh!" half whistled the palmist. "There is no husband in sight; you will remain single all the days of your life." "I'm glad to know it," retorted the young woman. "Now I'll show em who I am—I demand that women shall be free and shall no longer be the slaves of a system which deprives them of their rights."

THE SAVIOR'S TEACHING — BROOKLYN TABERNACLE — BIBLE STUDIES

PREPARE YE FOR THE KINGDOM.

Luke iii, 1-17—Feb. 18.

"Repent ye, for the Kingdom of Heaven is at hand"—Matthew iii, 2.

JOHN THE BAPTIST was the last of the Prophets and Jesus declared that none of them was his superior—"There hath not arisen a greater Prophet than John the Baptist—and yet I say unto you that the least in the Kingdom of Heaven is greater than he." (Matthew xi, 11.) Every member of the Kingdom of Heaven class must be higher than John because begotten of the Holy Spirit. They are reckoned as members of the House of Sons, while the Prophets belong to the preceding House of Servants.—Hebrews iii, 5, 6.

God proposed before the foundation of the world that He would redeem man and would establish His Kingdom for their restoration. The Redeemer of the world was to be the King by whose reign of a thousand years the work of Satan would be undone; the head of the Serpent would be crushed and humanity would be uplifted out of sin and death and be brought back to the condition in which Adam was at first.

"The voice of one crying in the wilderness."

Necessarily to the Jew First.

Although God had not mentioned this elect class which He purposed should be members of the Messiah, His Bride, nevertheless God determined that the opportunity to become members of this elect, special class should first of all go to Abraham's natural seed. For the three and a half years of Jesus' ministry, and for a further three and a half years after His death, the privilege of becoming His Bride and joint-heir was limited to Israel after the flesh.

Later, it was sent on equal terms also to the Gentiles. Saint Paul tells us that it was necessary that the Gospel Message should go first to the Jews because this was the Divine arrangement. But he adds, "Israel hath not obtained that which he seeketh for"—the best of God's gifts, the privilege of becoming members of the spiritual Israel—"but the election hath obtained it and the rest were blinded" (Romans xi, 7.) The blindness is not to be forever, but merely until the completion of the elect, spiritual class—then the blindness is to pass away and Israel is to be saved or recovered to the Divine favor lost eighteen centuries ago (See Romans xi, 25-33).

As Jesus declared, "My Kingdom is not of this world (Age)," and as He did not establish His Kingdom at His first advent, but merely began the work of calling the "elect," so the work of John the Baptist was merely to the Jew and proportionately only was he the antitype of Elijah. A larger antitype of Jesus, and of Elijah and John as forerunners, we may now see. Jesus in the flesh, and all His faithful members in the flesh for eighteen centuries, have constituted the antitype of John the Baptist. The Kingdom whose Kingdom they announce will be composed of Jesus and His glorified Bride, beyond the veil. These soon shall take the Kingdom and reign gloriously as Abraham's Seed for the blessing of all the families of the earth.

"Who warned you to flee from the wrath to come?"

The Church has cried "in the wilderness" in the sense that she has been alienated and separated from the world. She has called upon all who would hear to prepare for Messiah's Kingdom. She has told more fully than did John the Baptist of the effect of Messiah's Kingdom—the leveling up of the valleys, the lifting up of the poor, the straightening out of the crooked things, that thus all flesh might see, appreciate, understand, experience the salvation of God. Both John and the Church declare that this salvation is to be brought through Jesus and His glorified Bride in Kingdom power. The point we are making is that while John the Baptist was an antitype of Elijah and was forerunner or herald of Jesus, so, only more particularly, the Church in the flesh is a higher antitype of Elijah, and still more particularly a herald of the Messianic Kingdom.

Jesus did a harvesting work for the Jewish nation only. He gathered their wheat into the garner of the Gospel Age by begetting them of the Holy Spirit at Pentecost and onward; and He "burned up" the nation in a time of trouble with which their Age ended, in A. D. 70. But now for the larger fulfilment—world-wide. In the end of this Age, all the "wheat" class are to be gathered into the heavenly garner by the change of the First Resurrection, and in the time of trouble coming all others will be cut off from all association with the Church and from all opportunity of membership in it—as tares they will be burned—reduced to the level of the masses of mankind. But, thank God! at that time will begin the work of blessing the masses of mankind—all the families of the earth—by the glorious, Messianic Kingdom!
